

FREE! Respiratory Educational Programme

Living Well Partnership in Southampton are running a project delivering a rotational respiratory education programme.

This is fully funded by the

Do you work in General Practice in the South of England?

Do you care for patients with Chronic Respiratory Conditions?

Can you commit to 8 face to face training sessions?

Supporting Nurses working in General Practice with their Respiratory knowledge and skills

This free programme will allow you to experience working with a team of highly experienced Respiratory Nurse Specialists and will include:

- Respiratory theory
- Observational opportunities
- Following the patient journey from presentation to diagnosis
- Complex respiratory reviews
- Multidisciplinary team working
- Endless learning and development opportunities!

Click or Follow the QR code to express your interest